LYON WINS OLYMPIC GOLF.

Canadian Beats National Champion Egan by 3 Up and 2 to Play.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 24.—George S. Lyon, the ex-golf champion of Canada, won the title of Olympic golf champion to-day by defeating the National champion, H. Chandler Egan, in the final round of the Olympic tourney, by 3 up and 2 to play.

The match was started in a hard rain. The Canadian golfer got a lead of 3 holes on the ninth green. Egan picked up on the next nine holes and cut down Lyon's lead to one hole, at the end of the eighteen holes being the first half of the 36-hole match. In the afternoon the nineteenth hole was halved, and Lyon won the next. The latter was still 2 up on the twenty-seventh hole.

The thirtieth hole was halved. Egan won the thirty-first in four strokes to Lyon's five. The thirty-second was halved, and Lyon won the thirty-third, being then two up, with three to go. By winning the next hole Lyon closed the match and won the Olympic championship cup.
